This should be another fun rolling rally, welcome to all. We will leave the Columbus, OH rally and head west in a group. Some of us will make it to the Northwest Lakeside, Montana rally, while others will peel off at other locations. We will travel in groups, the early risers traveling together, slower drivers in another group while faster drivers will be in their own group. We will have attractions and lunch stops listed for those that want them and then we will all meet for our evening social at a scheduled RV Park. There will be some fun surprise stops along the way. If you're headed west from the Columbus rally and haven't traveled this way before come join us and be surprised. All are welcome.
